

St. Mary the Virgin, Hartfield Holy Trinity, Colemans Hatch

First Reading: Genesis 2:4-9

Adam and Eve

This is the account of the heavens and the earth when they were created, when the LORD God made the earth and the heavens. Now no shrub had yet appeared on the earth and no plant had yet sprung up, for the LORD God had not sent rain on the earth and there was no one to work the ground, but streams came up from the earth and watered the whole surface of the ground. Then the LORD God formed a man from the dust of the ground and breathed into his nostrils the breath of life, and the man became a living being.

Now the LORD God had planted a garden in the east, in Eden; and there he put the man he had formed. The LORD God made all kinds of trees grow out of the ground – trees that were pleasing to the eye and good for food. In the middle of the garden were the tree of life and the tree of the knowledge of good and evil.

Genesis 2:15-end

The LORD God took the man and put him in the Garden of Eden to work it and take care of it. And the LORD God commanded the man, ‘You are free to eat from any tree in the garden; but you must not eat from the tree of the knowledge of good and evil, for when you eat from it you will certainly die.’

The LORD God said, ‘It is not good for the man to be alone. I will make a helper suitable for him.’

Now the LORD God had formed out of the ground all the wild animals and all the birds in the sky. He brought them to the man to see what he would name them; and whatever the man called each living creature, that was its name. So the man gave names to all the livestock, the birds in the sky and all the wild animals.

But for Adam no suitable helper was found. So the LORD God caused the man to fall into a deep sleep; and while he was sleeping, he took one of the man's ribs and then closed up the place with flesh. Then the LORD God made a woman from the rib he had taken out of the man, and he brought her to the man.

The man said,

'This is now bone of my bones
and flesh of my flesh;
she shall be called "woman",
for she was taken out of man.'

That is why a man leaves his father and mother and is united to his wife, and they become one flesh.

Adam and his wife were both naked, and they felt no shame.

Second Reading: Luke 8:22-25

Jesus calms the storm

One day Jesus said to his disciples, 'Let us go over to the other side of the lake.' So they got into a boat and set out. As they sailed, he fell asleep. A squall came down on the lake, so that the boat was being swamped, and they were in great danger.

The disciples went and woke him, saying, 'Master, Master, we're going to drown!'

He got up and rebuked the wind and the raging waters; the storm subsided, and all was calm. 'Where is your faith?' he asked his disciples.

In fear and amazement they asked one another, 'Who is this? He commands even the winds and the water, and they obey him.'

Parish Link to Chichester Cathedral

A letter from Jane Holland:

I have been the link for our two parishes to Chichester Cathedral for many years.

The Cathedral keeps us informed of events, lectures and services in Newsletters four times a year. Over the years, groups from Hartfield have had wonderful days at the Cathedral, being shown round this beautiful building founded in 1075. We receive a warm welcome and a knowledgeable tour and to see the amazing commissioned art works, from the beckoning statue of St Richard, by Sussex Sculptor Philip Jackson, to the stunning Chagall window of brilliant reds and blues and the huge John Piper tapestry behind the High Altar.

Once a year the Cathedral prays for our two parishes and we are invited to a choral evensong, sitting in the choir, of angelic voices, preceded by a delicious tea in the Bishop Bell Tea Rooms.

It is sad that the distance makes it difficult to visit, but the Cathedral cares for all its parishes and tries to keep in touch. Bishop Martin was in St Mary's this week to celebrate the Eucharist and view our new building works.

Jane Holland

Rev Julie writes....

I want to thank Jane for her many years of service as a Cathedral link. We would like to maintain our link going forward. If you are interested in this role, please speak to either Jane or Rev Julie to find out more.

Save the date!

St Mary's, 15th & 16th June 2019

Many of you at St Mary's have been saving the weekend for our weekend away at Burrswold.

However, we have made a decision not to actually go away as a church but to have a more family orientated time together here in Hartfield.

So please do keep that weekend free. The plan is to have a walk in the afternoon followed by a BBQ with games. On the Sunday we will have a service with fun activities for our young people and children. More information nearer the time.

Rev Julie

Please pray for all those who are unwell at this time. All who wait for hospital results.

APCM

Holy Trinity - 8th April at Trinity Hall - 7:15pm (coffee and dessert) for 7:30pm start

St Mary's - 28th April in Church - 9.30am for a time of cafe' style worship followed by our APCM

Please put the dates for the APCM in your diary.

This is a significant moment in the life of the church. It is a time of thanksgiving as we look back and give thanks to God for all that He has been doing in the life of our churches and community. It is a time to focus on the present, what are the blessings and challenges. It is also a time to look forward, to pray for the coming year with vision and hope. The church is like any family. All ages, different skills and gifts all growing and praying together.

Please make this meeting a priority and pray for the mission and growth of our Benefice.
